

JOB VACANCY

Do you want to be part of a dynamic team who work to promote the safety and well-being of women, children and young people affected by domestic violence and abuse?

As a result of the continued development at Coventry Haven Women's Aid, we are looking to recruit the following post:

Independent Domestic Violence Advisor (IDVA)

£27,230 per annum

37 hours per week

25 days leave + Bank Holidays

Benefits include an Employee Assistance Programme and Pension Contribution

This is a temporary position until the end of March 2024, with the possibility of an extension beyond that timeframe.

Coventry Haven Women's Aid is looking for a proactive and self-motivated individual to provide a high quality service to survivors of domestic violence and abuse, who are identified as high risk and have been referred to the MARAC process.

You will work in partnership with other agencies to develop and deliver risk management plans to ensure victims' safety. You will be responsible for advocating on behalf of survivors of domestic violence and abuse in a range of settings and managing and reviewing your cases.

Coventry Haven Women's Aid values diversity, promotes equality and challenges discrimination. We encourage and welcome applications from women of all backgrounds and with language specialisms.

In order for us to monitor the effectiveness of our recruitment strategy we would also appreciate if you would complete our Equalities and Diversity questionnaire. This will not affect your application.
